LOCATION AND HOW TO REACH BLOOD- GOOD STOCK FARM.

NEW MARLBORO is situated amongst the far-famed Berkshire Hills, 16 miles from Lenox and about 140 miles from New York and Boston. It can be easily reached from New York by the New Haven & Hartford and Housatonic railroads. [Horses can be shipped from Pier 45, East river, to Great Barrington, arriving inside of 12 hours.] From Boston by the Boston & Albany and Housatonic railroads, and from Albany, 50 miles distant, also by the Boston & Albany and Housatonic railroads. Canaan, Ashley Falls, Sheffield and Great Barrington stations are all within 10 miles. The farm is situated just outside of the village and comprises in all 800 acres, with barns built on the latest and most approved style, with stalls for 150 horses, nearly all of which are large, loose boxes. Every barn has running spring water obtained from a hill half a mile distant. The pastures are well fenced and are abundant, with good springs.
